Metropolitan’s Column

Dearly Beloved,

The 7th Annual Clergy Conference and Diocesan Assembly were held at St. Thomas Orthodox Church, Atlanta from April 21st – 23rd. We take this time to appreciate all of the clergy and diocesan assembly members who made the meetings a great success. We recognize the devotion and commitment of our clergy and faithful to leading our Church continually in North America. Our sincere thanks belong to the host parish, vicar, and all its members, because of their hard work and dedication in making the Clergy Conference and Diocesan Assembly a grand success.

Fruitful discussions on different matters of the Church were conducted in both meetings and important decisions were taken pertaining to the growth of our Diocese. Of all the matters discussed, two vital decisions were made regarding the formation of a Department of Mission for the Diocese and the construction of the proposed chapel at the Diocesan Center.

When we consider the mission of the Church in North America, we have to focus on three major realities. The first and foremost is to take care of the spiritual needs of the Syrian Orthodox community migrating from India. Out of the fifty states in the United States of America, one-third of them do not have a Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church. It is also a fact that many of cities where our people live do not have an accessible Orthodox church. Thus, the mission of the Church includes keeping all the faithful in spiritual care by providing accessible church facilities. The second reality we recognize is the new generation born and brought up in North America who do not speak Malayalam and live in the Western cultural background. The Church has to address their needs and keep them in the rich heritage of Orthodoxy. It is a challenge here in America that the Pentecostal groups and ‘new generation’ churches attract this group of people with their pleasing prosperity gospel. The third reality should be considered of utmost importance. The Malankara Orthodox Church in North America has a mission to evangelize this nation with the Orthodox faith. America is a land of great potential and opportunity to spread the Orthodox understanding of the Gospel and provide the richness of Orthodox liturgy to the natives of this land. This century is considered as an era of Orthodoxy because the uniqueness of Orthodox life, liturgy, observances, architecture, and art are not shallow practices. The educated mass has an attraction to it. Thus, it is the responsibility of the Church to give this great faith to those who draw near to it. We have to start mission churches and other spiritual centers to accommodate and teach the interested individuals about our traditions.

The call for mission in North America drives the need of our own Orthodox spiritual centers for the faithful and those desiring to learn Orthodoxy. In this regard, the diocesan center is considered as the first of its kind. Among the many projects in the diocesan center we believe that the Diocesan Chapel be the first to come. The chapel construction project steadily progresses and the preliminary works are scheduled to begin on October 15th, 2016 beginning with the ground-breaking ceremony. The chapel is the foremost and primary venue for the Diocese as we develop a spiritual center in North America. For many months, we were debating on a name for the Diocesan chapel, and after prayerful devotion, our idea is to dedicate the Diocesan Center chapel in the name of all the apostles. Hence, we are thinking to give the name as ‘Holy Apostles Chapel’ and we can celebrate its feast day on June 30th. We would like to hear your suggestions and inputs regarding the construction and beautification of this holy place. Let it be an Orthodox landmark in North America to portray the heritage of this Ancient Church.

Your shepherd in Christ,

Alexios Mar Eusebius, Metropolitan

Thanksgiving Lunch at St. Thomas Mission, Houston

St. Thomas Mission of St. Thomas Cathedral, Houston, TX under the guidance of Diocesan Metropolitan H.G. Alexios Mar Eusebius and under the leadership of Vicar Very Rev. Gheevarghese Aroopala Corepiscopa is arranging a Thanksgiving Day lunch on November 24th, 2016. This is an effort to reach-out, in the love of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the needy and less fortunate in local communities. Our Diocesan Metropolitan H. G. Alexios Mar Eusebius, Hon. Mayor Leonard Scarcella from the City of Stafford and Hon. Mayor Pro-Tem, Ken Mathew, member of St. Thomas Cathedral also will participate in this event.
In the year 1975, Mother Teresa made it to the cover of Time Magazine for an article that acknowledged her as one of the world’s “Living Saints”. Pope Francis declared Sainthood for Mother on 4th September 2016, 19 years after her death.

In her acceptance speech, of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979, Mother said that she feels ‘most unworthy’ to receive the award. Adding that she is grateful and happy to receive it, in the name of the hungry, of the naked, of the homeless, of the cripple, of the blind, of the lepers, of all those people who feel unwanted, unloved, uncared… In the name of the people who have become a burden to society and are shunned.

Mother earned accolades and recognition over a lifetime spent working with the poor, the sick, the orphans, the lepers – the throwaway of the society. She understood that the hungry are not only hungry for bread. But hungry for love. The naked are not only naked for a piece of cloth. But naked of human dignity. The homeless are not homeless for a room to live. But homeless for having no place in anyone’s heart, for being forgotten.

‘Love one another’ is at the heart of the teachings of Jesus. How do we love? By giving. First in our homes, to our next door neighbors, in our communities. In all places, wherever, we are placed by God. Help one person at a time and start with those nearest to you. It’s not enough to say, “I love you, God.” How can you love the God you don’t see, when you can’t love the person in front of you? Maybe there is someone in your family who is long forgotten and unloved and uncared. Look around… There are many children, many men, many women who have not got what you have.

Love the poor. Never turn your back to the poor, for in doing so, you are turning your back to Christ who has made himself the hungry one, the naked one, the homeless one so that you and I have an opportunity to love Him. Mother Teresa’s gift to the world was “to make everybody aware of their own responsibility” and to inspire people with the knowledge that “each one of us can make a difference”. Mother Teresa was very aware of her need for mercy before God. A powerful reminder to all of us that, before God, we all stand in need of mercy. In this, we are all poor.

Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God. Her life’s message is to ‘Be the face of Jesus’, to ‘See the face of Jesus’ in the world. If you judge people, you have no time to love them. If you can’t feed a hundred people, then feed just one. By blood, she was Albanian. By law, Indian. By faith, Catholic. By heart, she belonged to Christ.
